12. CASE HISTORY: Subject was one-third owner of the cover firm AU ROI CAOUCOUC, Brussels. He had a direct line of communication to MOSCOW; he also received instructions from MOSCOW for the CHORO Group, and sent information supplied by the CHORO Group to MOSCOW. After Subject was turned by the Germans he moved his girl friend, Margarete BARCZA, whom he had met in MARSEILLES, to BERLIN. Subject's cooperation made it possible for the Germans to keep the communication lines to MOSCOW working until the summer of 1943. After 1943 Subject became a member of a French and Belgian resistance movement, always working for the Germans. Kriminalkommissar STRUEBING, of the Gestapo, AMT IV (See Personality Report, Annex A), directed KENT's activities from BERLIN. According to one source, KENT left PARIS with PANNWITZ (see Personality Report, Annex A), in July 1944. AMT IV in BERLIN did not receive any news about KENT's activities after 1944 and it is believed that KENT, and possibly PANNWITZ, joined the French Resistance Movement. According to another source KENT was seen in TANNENKIRCH (ALSACE) in September 1944 and PANNWITZ in HOF at the end of 1944. According to a third source, in the latter part of 1944, KENT was in the FRIEDRICHSDA Camp (Thuringia), where he may have been with his mistress, Margarete BARCZA.
